

SANYIN SIANG
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, COLE
DUKE UNIVERSITY

Sanyin Siang is the Executive Director of the Fuqua/Coach K Center on Leadership and Ethics (COLE) at Duke University.

Her experience in strategic planning, strategic partnerships, and coaching coupled with an entrepreneurial mindset has helped organizations and executives identify gaps and develop programs for a rapidly changing marketplace. She revels in convening interdisciplinary and diverse teams towards finding and implementing new approaches for complex problems. She is passionate about helping individuals and organizations identify opportunities and leverage their strengths to create greater value for society.

Her love for mentoring has translated into her coaching executives based in Asia, Europe, North America, Latin America, and Russia from organizations such as Citigroup, JP Morgan, Deloitte, US Transportation Security Administration, OMGEO, Areva, and BioMerieux.

She has spoken on leadership, ethics, and science and technology policy to different groups including MIT Sloan School of Business, the international meetings of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS); Center for Creative Leadership; Chicago-Kent School of Law, Claremont College, and Trinity College.

Sanyin's writing has appeared in PINK magazine, IEEE Spectrum (contributing editor), Journal of the National Cancer Institute, and Elvesier's HMS Beagle. Her thought pieces and research have been published in Science, DNA and Cell Biology, and Science and Engineering Ethics. She is co-editor of a special issue of the Leader to Leader Journal (co-published by Wiley & Sons).

Sanyin serves on the advisory boards of Algae-Systems, a biofuel technology startup and the Duke University Children's Hospital & Health Center. She has served on the editorial boards of Remedica's Clinical Researcher Journal, the American Bar Association's Science & Technology Law Section Newsletter and AAAS's Professional Ethics Report and was co-chair of the Info-Structure Security Dialogue. In 2004, she was a civilian member of the US Army War College's National Security Seminar.

Sanyin is a graduate of Duke University's Cross Continent MBA (an international executive MBA program). She also received her BSE in biomedical engineering from Duke where she was an Angier B. Duke Scholar.